

Child Protection & the Law

Legal Professional Development Training Day – click here to register

Friday 11th November 2022, State Library of SA

PROGRAM

Time	Topic	Content	Presenter
9:00am - 10:00am	Appearing in the Youth Court on a Care and Protection case	In this session, Judge Penny Eldridge will provide an overview for lawyers appearing in the Youth Court on Child Protection matters. This discussion will include a breakdown of the documents required when representing clients in Youth Court, useful tips on how to contest an order and how to ensure the rights of a Carer are upheld at the Youth Court.	Judge Penny Eldridge South Australian Youth Court
10:00am - 11:00am	Practical session on how to run a SACAT matter from the perspective of a Carer	Estelle will impart her many years of knowledge and experience appearing on behalf of Carers in Child Protection matters. In this session, Estelle will provide practical details on how to run a SACAT matter when representing a Carer.	Estelle Frawley Barrister, Carrington Chambers
11:00am - 11:30am	Rest break
11:30am - 12:30pm	The Ombudsman's Child Protection Jurisdiction	Deputy Ombudsman Steven Strelan will provide a brief overview of the role of the Ombudsman in SA and a detailed overview of the Ombudsman's child protection jurisdiction (i.e. legislative framework, types of complaints dealt with). Steven will include an update on recent relevant investigations.	Steven Strelan Deputy Ombudsman SA
12:30pm - 1:15pm	Lunch
1:15pm - 2:15pm	Child Protection and Administrative Law – the cross over and complexities	Kelly will take a deep dive into the complexities of Child Protection and Administrative law based on her PHD research and tribunal member experience	Kelly Ryan PhD Researcher
2:15pm - 3:15pm	In Conversation: Understanding the role of the Crown and Legal Services	Holly Veale will facilitate a discussion with Jonathon Lambert & Elizabeth Boxall exploring the role of the Crown Solicitor's Office and the role of the Department for Child Protection legal team in child protection proceedings.	Holly Veale Barrister, Jeffcott Chambers  Jonathon Lambert Executive Solicitor, Crown Solicitors Office  Elizabeth Boxall Director of Legal Services, Department for Child Protection
3:15pm - 4:15pm	The Interplay between the CYPS Act 2017 and the Family Law Act 1975	In this session Cinzia will discuss the interplay between the Children and Young People (Safety) Act 2017 and the Family Law Act, including Long Term Guardianship and the role of the independent children's representative: a practical comparison of the fundamental differences.	Cinzia Aglieco Solicitor, Aboriginal Legal Rights Movement
4:30pm onwards	End of program drinks Drinks supported by JusticeNet "connecting social need to legal skill"		